

Working Student in Global Purchasing Services

In our Innovation Centre in Mannheim, Germany we offer you the chance to gain experience in the fields of supply chain and logistics procurement within an international company with global customers across all industries.

LOCATION
Mannheim, Germany

CONTRACT TYPE
Temporary

WORKING HOURS
Full-time

RESPONSABILITIES

As a purchasing service provider, OCCON supports global shippers in the handling of the tendering processes. You will work as an extended arm of the customer in the areas of Purchasing and Logistics:

- Preparation of customer data and tender documents
- Implementation and analysis of offers
- Tender analysis (preparation of graphics and Power point presentations) and E-Auction participation
- Testing and further development of the tool
- Maintenance of market data
- Research, structuring, comparisons and analysis of purchasing data for customers
- Assist colleagues in Support Desk

QUALIFICATIONS

- Ongoing studies in Business Administration, International Management, Industrial Engineering, Engineering or Supply Chain, previous internships in these areas are an advantage
- Very good knowledge of Excel, u.a. Pivot tables, Makros
- Fluent in English and German, spoken and written
- Independent, structured and quality-oriented way of working, high personal commitment, team player
- Motivated, efficient and resilient
- Analytical skills and high affinity for numbers are an advantage

BENEFITS

From day one you will be part of the OCCON family. You will get involved in the challenging world of logistics consulting; and have the opportunity to work on exciting projects in an interdisciplinary environment.

- Gain working experience in a stable and fast-growing European company
- Provide support to customers globally
- Be part of a young experienced, highly motivated and open-minded team
- Future perspectives and development opportunities
- Freedom, variety and responsibility
- Topics for: Bachelor and Master thesis

ABOUT US

We support companies in the field of supply chain management & transport procurement. This does not only comprise optimising & purchasing but also planning, controlling and market studies.

We consult our clients, support them where capacity is missing and provide them with field-tested applications.

Based in the centre of the EU, we are a solid and fast-growing company, that has been providing consulting services worldwide for groups with global activities for over 12 years. We support manufacturing and trading companies of various industries like automotive, chemical, consumer, pharma, etc.

Learn more about OCCON at www.occon.de

APPLYING AT OCCON

We are looking forward to your application. Please apply by E-mail only.
Sabrina Baehr | Managing Director | E-Mail: recruiting@occon.de

Think Red.